

I love XM radio and have it in two of my vehicles. I find it to be an excellent service for both music and information, and far better than the non-stop, advertisement filled garbage that is today's "free" broadcasts. Please don't let the special interest lobby ruin another cool invention. If the local broadcasters were doing such a good job, why is XM growing at such a strong rate.